The Washington DC Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. (WDCAC) in partnership with The Delta Research and Educational Foundation (DREF) requests your support of our Sunday's Best Gospel Brunch. This gospel-infused brunch will highlight renowned saxophonist Brian Lenair and Johnnie Steele and family, and will spotlight some award winning students of gospel music from our DMV area. Guests also will be treated to a "Fabulous Forty Brunch". This event will take place on Sunday, November 18, 2018 at Martin's Crosswinds in Greenbelt, Maryland at 12 Noon, with prior shopping with area vendors at 11:00 A.M. and will benefit our scholarships and programs for students.

For over 97 years, WDCAC has provided services in the Washington, D.C. community that directly and personally enhance the quality of lives for many. Our public service programs are centered around Delta Sigma Theta's Five Point Programmatic Thrust: Economic Development, Educational Development, Physical and Mental Health, Political Awareness and Involvement, and International Awareness and Involvement. DREF is a public charitable organization that supports scholastic achievement, public service programs and research initiatives focused on African American Women. The proceeds from this most enjoyable event will directly benefit scholarships for students and community service projects and programs in Washington, D.C. Thank you very much for considering our Sunday's Best Gospel Brunch as a venue to support as a sponsor with your advertisement and/or patronage. Event sponsors will be officially recognized verbally during the program as well as in the printed program. Patrons will be recognized in the printed program. Donations are tax deductible to the extent allowed by IRS. Submissions must be received by November 12, 2018 to appear in the printed program. Make checks/money orders payable to DREF and mail to:
